RANDI D. BANDMAN is a partner at Lerach Coughlin whose responsibilities include the management of the Los Angeles office and involvement in the firm's Institutional Investor Department. Ms. Bandman received her Juris Doctor degree from the University of Southern California in 1989 and her Bachelor of Arts in English from the University of California at Los Angeles in 1986. Having been associated with the Lerach Coughlin lawyers for more than 12 years, Ms. Bandman's practice has focused on securities and consumer class actions in both state and federal court. She has represented shareholders of companies in industries as diverse as aircraft manufacturing, battery technology, and computer software. These cases, which yielded significant recoveries for the plaintiffs, were against such companies as National Health Labs ($64 million); Sybase ($28.5 million); Unocal ($47.5 million); Sunrise Medical ($20 million); Valence ($20 million); and Coeur d'Alene ($13 million). Ms. Bandman was responsible for running one of the largest class actions in the country over a four-year period against the Boeing Company which settled for more than $90 million. Ms. Bandman was also an early member of the team that directed the prosecution of the cases against the tobacco companies.

Using her extensive experience in asserting claims for injured investors, Ms. Bandman lectures and advises union and public funds both domestically and internationally on their options for seeking redress for losses due to fraud sustained in their pension portfolios. Ms. Bandman is currently interfacing with numerous public and union funds including those workers for various States and Municipalities, and the Entertainment Industry, as well as trades such as Sheetmetal, Construction, Airconditioning, Food and Hospitality, Plumbers, and Teamsters. Ms. Bandman is also representing shareholders in a class action against Vivendi Universal for allegedly misrepresenting their financial crisis to investors while engaging in a multi-billion dollar acquisition spree.

Ms. Bandman has served as a lecturer on numerous matters concerning securities litigation to attorneys for continuing legal education, as well as a panelist for the Practicing Law Institute.

OF COUNSEL

LEONARD B. SIMON is admitted to practice in California, New York, and the District of Columbia.

Mr. Simon's practice has been devoted heavily to litigation in the federal courts, including both the prosecution and the defense of major class actions and other complex litigation in the securities and antitrust fields. He has argued more than 20 appeals in the federal and state courts of appeal. He has also represented large, publicly traded corporations.

Mr. Simon served as plaintiffs' co-lead counsel in In re American Continental Corp./Lincoln Savings & Loan Sec. Litig., MDL 834 (D. Ariz.) (settled for $240 million), and In re NASDAQ Market-Makers Antitrust Litig., MDL 1023(S.D.N.Y.) (settled for more than one billion dollars). He is currently in a leadership position in the private Microsoft Antitrust Litigation, and in the California Utilities Antitrust Litigation. He was centrally involved in the prosecution of In re Washington Public Power Supply System Sec. Litig., MDL 551(D. Ariz.), the largest securities class action ever litigated.

Mr. Simon is an Adjunct Professor of Law at Duke University, the University of San Diego, and the University of Southern California law schools. He has lectured extensively on securities, antitrust and complex litigation on programs sponsored by the ABA Section of Litigation, the Practising Law Institute, and ALI-ABA, and at UCLA Law School, University of San Diego Law School, and Stanford Business School. He is an editor of California Federal Court Practice, and has authored a law review article on the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

Mr. Simon received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Union College in 1970 and his Juris Doctor degree from Duke University School of Law, Order of the Coif and with distinction, in 1973. He served as law clerk to the Honorable Irving Hill, U.S. District Judge for the Central District of California, in 1973-74.

BYRON S. GEORGIU received his A.B. with Great Distinction, with Honors in Social Thought and Institutions, in 1970 from Stanford University, attending on an Alfred P. Sloan full academic scholarship. After a year co-founding and teaching 7th and 8th graders at the Mariposa School, which has thrived for 35 years as an alternative primary through middle school in rural Mendocino County, he attended Harvard Law School, graduating magna cum laude in 1974. He was admitted to the California Bar in 1974 and served for one year as law clerk to the Honorable Robert F. Peckham, Chief Judge of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California. He is a member of the bar of the U.S. Supreme Court, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit and the U.S. District Courts for the Northern, Eastern, Central and Southern Districts of California.

Mr. Georgiou served from 1975 to 1980 in various capacities with the California Agricultural Labor Relations Board, defending the constitutionality of the law up through the U.S. and California Supreme Courts and prosecuting unfair labor practice cases enforcing the collective bargaining rights of farmworkers, who had been excluded from coverage under the National Labor Relations Act.

From 1980 to 1983, Mr. Georgiou served as Legal Affairs Secretary to California Governor Edmund G. Brown Jr., responsible for litigation by and against the Governor, judicial appointments, liaison with the Attorney General, Judiciary and State Bar, legal advice to the Governor and members of his Cabinet, and exercise of the Governor's powers of extradition and clemency.

From 1983 to 1994, he was Managing Partner and co-founder of the San Diego law firm of Georgiou, Tosdal, Levine & Smith, engaged in a general civil practice, with emphasis on litigation, appearances before executive and legislative governmental bodies, and representation of labor organizations and their members, including contract negotiations and enforcement for many California public and private sector unions.

In 1994, he co-founded and served as President of American Partners Capital Group, specializing in serving the needs of institutional investors through capital formation programs in a variety of alternative asset categories.

In 1981 Mr. Georgiou was honored as Public Official of the Year by the California Trial Lawyers Association and served as Chair of the Governor's Task Force on Alcohol, Drugs and Traffic Safety, one of the nation's first vehicles for enacting tough drunk driver legislation sponsored by the Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD).

Since affiliating with Milberg Weiss in 2000 and continuing with Lerach Coughlin, Mr. Georgiou serves as the primary liaison with a number of the firm's principal institutional clients and is actively involved in the historic litigations seeking recoveries for defrauded investors in Enron, Dynegy, AOL Time Warner and WorldCom.

SANDRA STEIN is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania (B.S.) and Temple University Law School (J.D.). She is a member of the Pennsylvania and Washington, D.C. bars. Ms. Stein specializes in securities class action litigation, legislative law, and antitrust litigation. She served as counsel to U.S. Senator Arlen Specter and to the U.S. Institute for Law and Economic Policy, a think tank which develops policy positions on selected issues involving the administration of justice within the American Legal System. In addition, Ms. Stein served on the Board of Advisors of the Annenberg Institute of Public Service at the University of Pennsylvania. Ms. Stein was the recipient of the National Federation of Republican Women's "Best of America" Award and has been honored by the White House, California State Senate, and California State Assembly for civic leadership.

In a unique partnership with her daughter, Attorney Laura Stein, a former associate of Milberg Weiss, the Steins served as two of the top asset recovery experts in the firm. With Lerach Coughlin, Attorneys Stein focus on maximizing profits and minimizing losses to shareholders due to corporate fraud and breaches of fiduciary duty. They also seek to deter future violations of federal and state securities laws by reinforcing the standards of good corporate governance.

Ms. Stein has been active in a number of organizations, including the National Association of Shareholder and Consumer Attorneys (NASCAT), National Association of State

Treasurers (NAST), the AFL-CIO Lawyers Coordinating Committee, the National Coordinating Committee for multi-employer Plans (NCCMP), the International Foundation for Employer Benefit Plans (IFEBP) among others.

Ms. Stein recently addressed the National Association of Auditors, Controllers and Treasurers on the subject of corporate governance and its role as a positive force in future class action securities settlements. She has also spoken before numerous AFL-CIO conventions and dozens of public and multi-employer pension funds.

ELISABETH A. BOWMAN is part of Lerach Coughlin's in-house graphics group which creates visual and audio aids to help explain complex cases and legal theories in a succinct and understandable way. Ms. Bowman's eight years as a criminal defense trial attorney and her former experience in the graphic arts combine to make her exceptionally well suited to produce persuasive legal graphics at every stage of litigation and at trial. Before joining Lerach Coughlin, Ms. Bowman practiced law with Milberg Weiss for six years, during which time she assisted in the trials of: Long v. Wells Fargo Company, et al., Yourish v. California Amplifier, et al., In re Helionetics, Inc. Securities Litigation, and Schwartz v. Visa, et al.

Since joining Lerach Coughlin in 2004, Ms. Bowman assisted in the trials of: Douglas Shooker, et. al. v. Gary Winnick, et. al., and In re AT&T Corp. Securities Litigation.
